August 2018

Registered Charity No. 1099411

A very warm welcome to our new members: Jenni Shelton and Helen Swift

Chairman's Chat

Hello everyone.

August is generally a quiet time for our U3A with many groups taking a summer break. But there are lots of local events to visit if you want to get out and about, including the Great Glen Wheelbarrow Race and Fête on 1st September.

And of course we have our 'Open Day' from 10.00 to 11.30 a.m. on Tuesday 14th August. If you are reading this as a visitor to our Open Day then I hope you see that we have a wide range of interest groups you can join – book groups, history groups, arts and crafts groups, sports, games, music and dancing groups – talk to the people on the stands, take away membership application forms or even join Great Glen U3A today. Nearly all of our groups meet in rooms in Great Glen, either in the Methodist church or the Sports Centre next to the Village Hall. If you are already a member then take this opportunity to look at other groups you might be interested in joining. Later in this newsletter you'll find an update on the new Walking group, which is something many members have requested.

As I have mentioned previously, there are various committee changes in progress or in the offing and this month I'd like to mention two more. The current holders of the two roles of Newsletter Editor and Webmaster will relinquish these roles next May. As you might imagine both roles require a moderate level of IT competency. If you are interested in either role then you can work alongside the current holders before taking over the roles next year. Contact me or any committee member to find out more. Obviously we would like to keep both our newsletter and website going and this is only possible with members' involvement.

Finally, back to the Open Day, and a big 'Thank You' to all those involved in its organisation both in the planning and on the day itself.

That's all for now. Let's all get out as much as possible now the weather has returned to an enjoyable level.

Best wishes to you all

Methodist Hall Room Charges

We have been advised of a significant increase in the rental charges for the main hall and the Ruth Warner room. The new rates are effective from 1st September. At the end of the year we shall be looking carefully at the effect of this increase on our financial position, but at present we do not anticipate any changes to our membership or group subscriptions.

Monthly Meetings

Our meeting on 14 August is the annual Open Day. This is a great opportunity to introduce family members and friends to our U3A and to learn something about other groups/innovations.

14 August 2018	Open Day
11 September 2018	Grandfather William Coltman VC, in WW1	Tim Coltman
9 October 2018	The Driving Test! (factual but humorous!)	Brian Johnson

Meetings are held in the Village Hall on the second Tuesday of each month. Doors open 10.00 a.m. for tea and coffee, event / speaker 10.30 a.m. Coffee rota – see below.

Coffee Rota

- 11 September – History of Art Group
- 9 October – Line Dancing Group

Masters of Mirth – Mike Storr

(July Meeting)

Mike Storr shared with us the fruits of his researches into the history of the Music Hall, which had its origins in the lively back rooms of Victorian public houses. Music hall entertainment was rooted in a curious mixture of reverence for, and the more or less subtle mockery of, what typified the times and patriotism. We were treated to some lively impersonations of the stars of a bygone era, awakening echoes of less edgy and frenetic times. The bill at our ‘palace of varieties’ included Rob Wills, George Robey, Pam Ayres, Bernard Miles and Stanley Holloway, complete with suitable stage props. It was good to be reminded of such masterpieces as ‘The Recumbent Posture’, ‘The Bricklayer’s Lament’ and ‘Clive the Birdman’.

LEARN SOMETHING NEW

The Sun, the Moon and the Stars

Are you interested in a beginner’s guide to Astronomy? Would you like to come to a taster session to find out more about the skies above us? If you remember with fondness The Sky at Night you may be interested in finding out a bit more. There isn’t a date yet, but if there is enough interest we will try to put together a Learn Something New session in the autumn to learn more about the pleasures of looking more closely at the night sky.

Sign up at the Open Day or contact me to put your name on the list and I shall keep you informed.

Creative Writing

Members may be interested to know that Glenfield U3A Writers' Group is running a study day on 'Choosing your Words' on Thursday 20th September at Glenfield Sports Pavilion from 10.00 to 15.30. This follows a successful event last year. If you are interested in taking up one of the few remaining places please email gail.nunn@zen.co.uk or telephone 231 4895.

Of course, Great Glen U3A used to have a Creative Writing Group until quite recently. Would anyone be interested in joining and possibly helping to run such a group? If so, please contact me.

Croquet

For the first time in many years we have two places available for the 1.30 till 3.00 p.m. croquet session on Tuesdays, and also two places for the 10.00 till 11.30 a.m. session on Thursdays. Coffee/tea is available and included in your £1.50. You will not get wet and the hall is warm in winter. We play on the carpet in the Chapel Hall.

English Country Dancing

The English Country Dancing Group finished its 2017/18 dancing season at the end of June and is now taking a break through July and August. Over the course of 37 sessions this year we have danced 153 different dances, several on multiple occasions. The dances have included a variety of formations (circles and longways sets "for as many as will", as well as two-, three- and four-couple sets) and vintages. The earliest were recorded first by John Playford in 1651 but are probably much older, eg Sellenger's Round, while one of the most recent, The Beast from the East, was written in March of 2018 to commemorate the severe cold weather of the last winter!

The Group will resume its regular weekly activities on Tuesday 4th September, from 1.30 to 3.30 p.m. in the Sports Hall as usual, and we are always pleased to welcome new members. Most of our dances are conducted at walking pace, with occasionally skipping so are not too vigorous. The music we use ranges from classical (Handel, Purcell, Mozart, Bach) to modern compositions, sometimes even jazz, and for the older dances often features tunes that will be familiar to anybody who enjoys English traditional music.

No previous experience is needed as all the dances are fully explained, the moves are walked through before setting them to music and the dances are called throughout. Also, no special clothing needed – just light-weight shoes or sandals and comfortable clothing suitable for gentle dancing. Nor do you need to come with a partner; singles of both sexes are welcomed, and we often change partners during the dances so that everybody is involved. The only requirement is to be prepared to join in and enjoy yourself.

Why not make a note in your diary now, to come along in September!

Evening Bridge

Do you enjoy bridge? Why not join us?

We are a friendly (non-League) social bridge group playing Duplicate Bridge every Tuesday evening in the Great Glen Methodist church hall (except the third week of the month when we meet at the Great Glen Community Library). We would love to meet new members to enlarge our group. You will be made most welcome.

Family History

We shall be restarting after the Summer break on Wednesday 12th September at 9.30 a.m. in the Methodist Church Hall. If you watch 'Who do you think you are?' on TV then come along and learn how to do it yourself. However, a word of caution – unless you are reasonably able to use a computer then this won't be for you, I'm afraid.

Garden Visits

On Friday 17th August we are visiting Tresillian House on Dalby Road in Melton Mowbray (post code LE13 0BQ). We reach our destination by turning on to the B6047 from the A47 and going through some very attractive villages until we come to the outskirts of Melton where on the left-hand side there is a school. Our venue is a little further along on the right-hand side. A $\frac{3}{4}$ -acre garden re-established by the current owner with blue cedar trees, an excellent specimen tulip tree and a variety of plants and bushes. An original bog garden, natural pond and a Koi pond added in 2015. The cost is £7.50 for admission plus tea and cakes. If you would like to come please contact Margaret Wright (243 2550) and let her know whether you need a lift. We shall meet in the Great Glen Village Hall car park at 1.30 p.m. to pick up those without transport.

TRIP TO NEWSTEAD ABBEY ON FRIDAY 19th OCTOBER - ANCESTRAL HOME OF LORD BYRON.

There are still a few seats available on the coach. The cost is £22 p.p. which includes coach travel, admission and a one hour guided tour of the house. (I am informed it is advisable to be able to manage stairs in order to complete the house tour.) The coach will leave Great Glen car park promptly at 10.00 a.m. Please let me know if you would like to come. I should be grateful for payment as soon as possible (as these trips request payment prior to the visit) and definitely either at or before the meeting on 11th September. Cash or cheque (made payable to Great Glen U3A) are both acceptable. Many thanks.

Table Top Games

This is a small, friendly group for people who enjoy playing games and trying to keep those little grey cells exercised. You do not have to be an expert to join us. We're happy to teach you new games, or, if you choose to bring a favourite from home, we're happy to be taught by you. Currently we play a variety of card and board games (Canasta, Upwords, Rummikub & Scrabble, and chess by arrangement.) These are played concurrently, so, if you prefer say, numbers rather than word ones, we should be able to oblige.

Our group meets twice a month on the second and fourth Thursdays at the Methodist Church. We appreciate it if you can arrive by 1.55 for a 2.00 p.m. start, giving us the chance to sort out which games we are all playing. New members are always welcome, so please come and give us a try. Phone Eileen or Helen to let us know to expect you. August dates: 9th and 23rd; September dates: 13th and 27th.

Ukulele Group

The Group meets on the first and third Monday mornings and will resume on 3rd September.

Concerts and guest spots for the autumn are already being planned, but we could still use a bass player. If you think you would enjoy strumming (and singing along) with this convivial group, please give me a call.

Walking Without Stiles

The first walk will take place in and around Foxton on Tuesday 25th September starting 10.30 a.m. Meet outside the Foxton Village Hall on Middle Street, where parking is available. The length of the walk is approximately three miles so duration will be between two and three hours, with lunch available at a number of places in the bottom lock area. If you would like to participate please contact John Johnson. Further walks are being planned for:

- Tuesday 23rd October starting in Market Harborough.

- Tuesday 27th November starting in Glen Parva.

For these walks contact Elizabeth Cooke. No walks are to be held in December, but we shall restart in January 2019.

A Date for your Diary

Leicester Grammar School is proud to be hosting the inaugural Leicester History Festival on Saturday 29th September 2018. The aim of the event is to provide a spectrum of historical exhibits and activities focused around a broad range of historical periods. Among the exhibitors confirmed are RAF Museum Cosford, the Sealed Knot Civil War re-enactment group, a range of academic speakers debating the big questions of World War One, a Roman Soldier and a team from Great Glen U3A! Why not visit this prestigious event, learn something new and enjoy a great day?

Sunbeam 2

The river trip cancelled earlier in the year is now booked for Wednesday 12th September leaving the Library Car Park at 9.30 a.m. and returning about 4.30 p.m. We are limited to 12 passengers and we plan to reach a waterside pub for lunch or picnic. This is not a U3A outing and preference will be given to friends who are no longer able to manage aboard normal boats. Sunbeam 2 is owned by Mosaic who help disabled people in many ways.

Please ring me to book your place. The cost is £12 per person to cover your trip and morning coffee/tea and afternoon tea/coffee.
